

Why Invictus

- Service-disabled, veteran-owned small business (SDVOSB)
- Member, Small Business Administration's Mentor Protégé program
- ISO 9001 2015
- CMMI/DEV 3
- CompTIA A+, ITIL, PMP certified staff

Points of contact

Brian Newell
 Director, corporate growth
 bnewell@oasysic.com
 703.395.5111

John Konisiewicz
 Director, federal civilian programs
 John.Konisiewicz@perspecta.com
 703.972.6534

Customers

- Federal Communications Commission
- Department of Defense
- Department of Education
- Department of Homeland Security
- Department of Transportation
- Department of Veterans Affairs
- Securities and Exchange Commission

About Invictus

Invictus JV, LLC delivers high performance, long-term information technology (IT) services and solutions to address federal government challenges. As a joint venture between Oasys International and Knight Point Systems LLC, a Perspecta company, we provide systems engineering and integration with an emphasis on system design, development, production, installation and support. From cloud computing and application services to program management and IT strategic planning, we support agencies across their computing environments.

IT and consulting expertise

Cloud and data center services

- Cloud computing
- Systems and network engineering
- Storage management, backup and recovery
- Migration and consolidation
- Application rationalization

Cybersecurity

- Security as-a-service
- Security engineering
- Information assurance
- Certification and accreditation
- Security operations center

IT strategic planning

- Enterprise architecture
- Business process reengineering
- Technology roadmap development

Program management

- Acquisition management
- Capital planning and investment control (CPIC)
- Program management office (PMO) and mission support
- Requirements development
- Case management

Service desk

- IT help desk support
- Application support management
- Call center management
- Incident and event management